

A Workshop for All Who Plan Weddings “Planning and Preparing Weddings”

Sustaining the Journey, a workshop series endorsed by both the National Association of Pastoral Musicians and the American Guild of Organists, is an opportunity for all Liturgical Ministers to experience renewal and refreshment. With a combined 70+ years of liturgical ministry in the Diocese of Cleveland, presenters Bob Soeder and Mary Hrich bring with them a wealth of experience, knowledge, and music. Each workshop begins with a light meal, time for fellowship and prayer, and includes stories, singing, and a little learning along the way! Designed for all who plan and prepare weddings, this Sustaining the Journey event will leave you with food for thought and a renewed enthusiasm for liturgical ministry. Come for the food – stay for the nourishment!

A wedding – the sacramental union of two families – can be a turning point in the faith journey of the couple, their families, and their guests. Weddings can be a time of love and gratitude, and a unique opportunity for evangelization. They can also evoke memories, draw out the opinions of those involved in the planning, and be a source of challenged expectations that result in strain. This workshop addresses some of the considerations specific to those who plan and prepare wedding celebrations, including:

- Group wedding planning sessions
- Prayer opportunities: Pre-Cana, Planning, Wedding
- What to bring to the rehearsal
- Music options and diocesan guidelines
- Suggestions for liturgical ministers
- Wedding programs/worship aids
- Addressing preconceived expectations
- Sanctity, Sacredness, Sacrament

Content can be customized to meet your organization’s specific needs.
